

Quid

Quid is a group of three vases/containers placed on the wooden element which interacts with the ceramic part to form different configurations.

The ceramic part can be transformed from a vase into a container, depending on how the wooden part is positioned, so the wood can be a base or a cap.

Quid is an iconic, expressive and versatile object, useful in all manners of occasions according to its owners desires. Every product is made of handcrafted ceramic and durmast solid wood. Quid are entirely handmade in Italy.
